CANUCK LAW

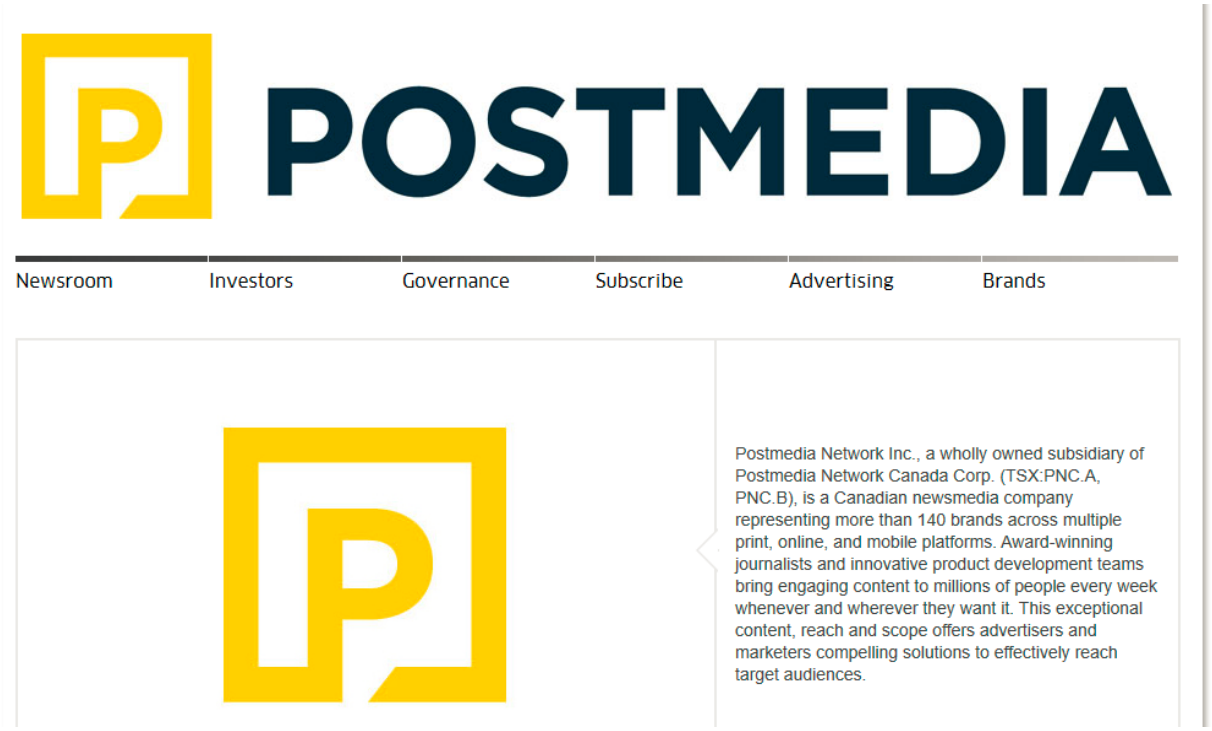
Reporting That You're Not Getting Elsewhere (Do Your Own Research To Verify)

JANUARY 26, 2020 BY RONNIE

Much “Conservative” Content Dominated By Koch/Atlas

(Atlas Network, which funds 12 (was 13) groups in Canada, 140 in U.S.)

(Post Media, which owns most “conservative” media outlets in Canada)



POSTMEDIA
Newsroom
Investors
Governance
Subscribe
Advertising
Brands
Postmedia Network Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Postmedia Network Canada Corp. (TSX:PNC.A, PNC.B), is a Canadian newsmedia company representing more than 140 brands across multiple print, online, and mobile platforms. Award-winning journalists and innovative product development teams bring engaging content to millions of people every week whenever and wherever they want it. This exceptional content, reach and scope offers advertisers and marketers compelling solutions to effectively reach target audiences.

This is the second part. Buckle up.

1. Media Bias, Lies, Omissions And Corruption

(1) https://canucklaw.ca/unifor-denies-crawling-into-bed-with-government

(2) https://canucklaw.ca/full-scale-of-inadmissibles-getting-residency-permits-what-global-news-leaves-out/

(3) https://canucklaw.ca/post-media-controls-msm-conservative-alternative-media/

2. Important Links

(1) http://www.postmedia.com/

(2) http://www.postmedia.com/brands/

(3) http://archive.is/3XVkQ

(4) http://www.postmedia.com/brands/communities/

(5) http://archive.is/vnQHe

(6) http://www.postmedia.com/brands/specialty-publications/

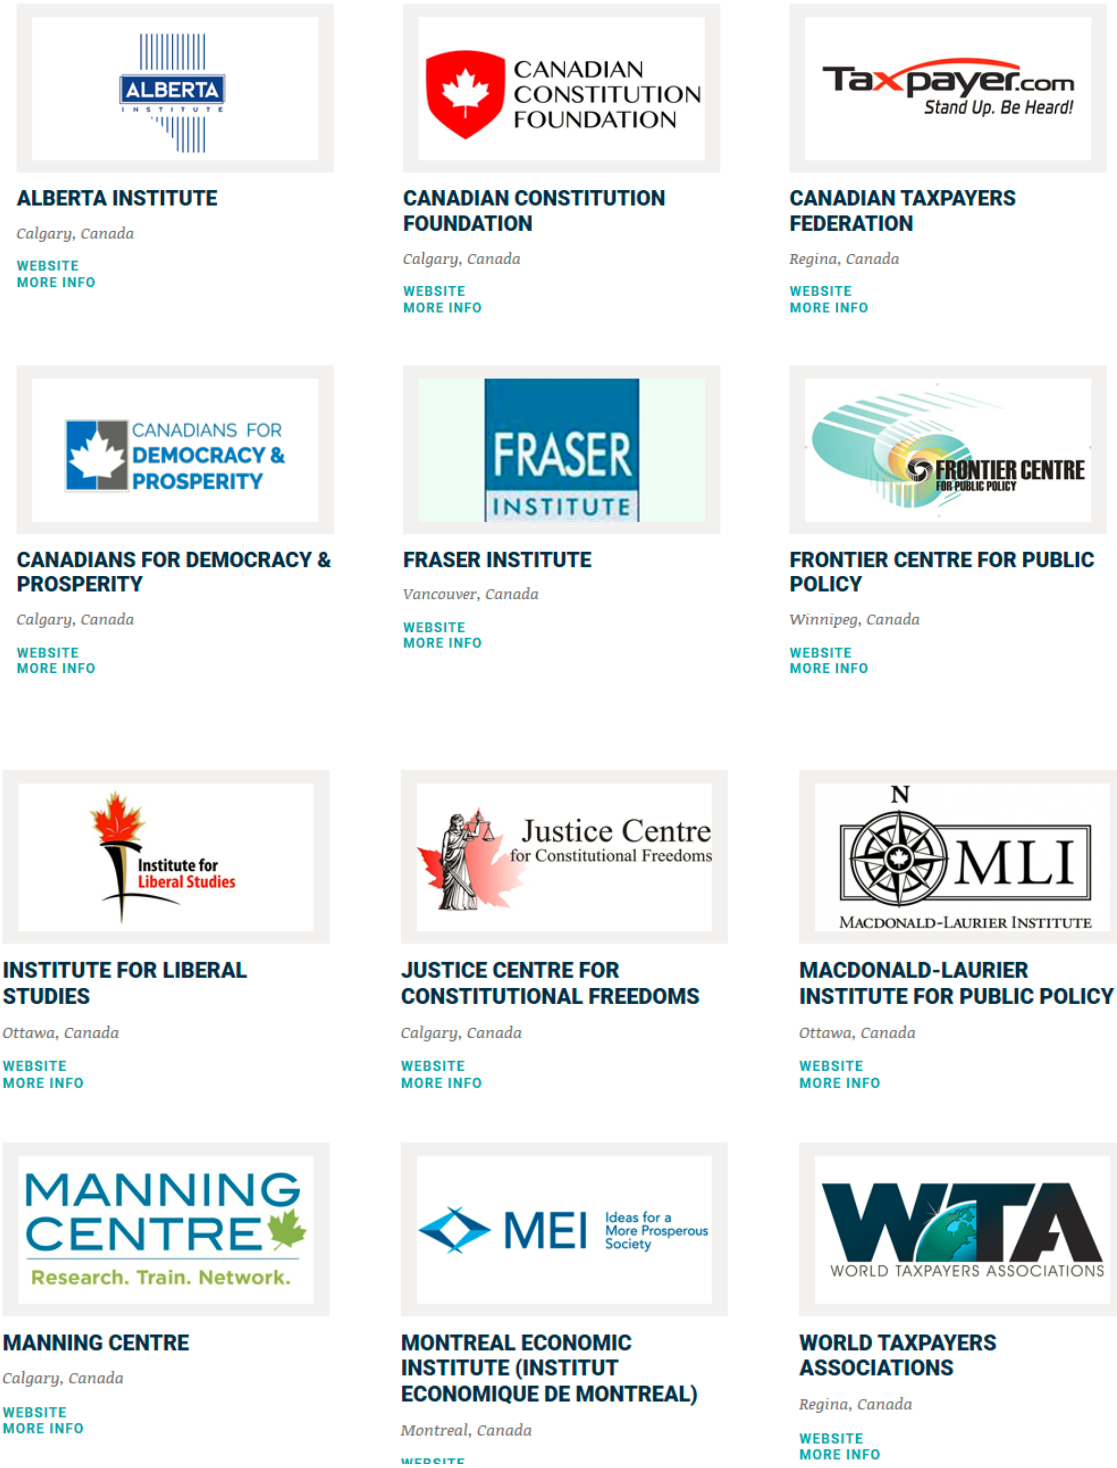
(7) http://archive.is/na2pj

(8) http://www.postmedia.com/governance-2/governance/

(9) http://archive.is/kCJ2Q (current)
(10) http://archive.is/FcCBZ (3 years ago)
(11) http://www.postmedia.com/governance-2/senior-management/
(12) http://archive.is/dLjPY

(13) https://www.atlasnetwork.org/partners/global-directory/canada
(14) http://archive.is/3ytVX
(15) https://www.atlasnetwork.org/partners/global-directory/united-states/5
(16) http://archive.is/faeRd
(17) https://www.atlasnetwork.org/partners/global-directory/europe-and-central-asia/4
(18) http://archive.is/jn4ik
(19) https://www.atlasnetwork.org/partners/global-directory/east-asia-and-pacific/2
(20) http://archive.is/WhgMl
(21) https://www.atlasnetwork.org/partners/global-directory/latin-america-and-caribbean/3
(22) http://archive.is/OtI6o
(23) https://www.atlasnetwork.org/partners/global-directory/middle-east-and-north-africa
(24) http://archive.is/nwWR0
(25) https://www.atlasnetwork.org/partners/global-directory/africa
(26) http://archive.is/Rto7L
(27) https://www.atlasnetwork.org/partners/global-directory/south-asia
(28) http://archive.is/shhAo
(29) https://www.atlasnetwork.org/partners/global-directory/australia-and-new-zealand
(30) http://archive.is/fTPfH

2. Atlas Network’s Canadian Partners



- Alberta Institute
- Canadian Constitution Foundation
- Canadian Taxpayers Federation
- Canadians For Democracy And Transparency
- Fraser Institute
- Frontier Center For Public Policy
- Institute For Liberal Studies

- Justice Center For Constitutional Freedoms
- MacDonald-Laurier Institute For Public Policy
- Manning Center
- Montreal Economic Institute
- World Taxpayers Federation

Why address Atlas Network? Because many of its operatives pretend to be objective and non-partisan in what they write and speak about.

While Atlas certainly does not have a monopoly on the paid shills in the media, there seem to be an awful lot of them who are connected. So let’s take a look into it. Note: Not all will be conservative, but a lot of them are. Just shows they’re all globalists.

3. Rebel Media’s Ezra Levant

I started attending Fraser Institute Student Seminars, not just in my own city, but I’d even travel to go to others in nearby cities. I then attended the Student Leaders Colloquium, and then became an FI summer intern, where I wrote a book called Youthquake.

I was a Koch Foundation Summer Fellow in Washington, DC, and have attended various Institute for Humane Studies (HIS) and Liberty Fund events over the years.

I’m a lawyer by profession; right after articling I worked for several years on Parliament Hill for Preston Manning and later for Stockwell Day. I joined the National Post’s editorial board for two years. After trying my own hand in politics, I wrote a book called Fight Kyoto and prac-

CSR: How do you think a deeper understanding of markets and the role they play in society has affected your professional life?*

EL: There are many vanilla ways to do law or media–being aware of the morality of the free market has steered me towards liberty-oriented law and a politically-flavoured magazine.

CSR: Have you always believed in markets and freedom, or, like many students, were you more “socialist” when you were younger? If your views changed, how and why did they do so?*

EL: Never socialist, ever.

Ezra as a Fraser Institute student intern in 1995.

I started attending Fraser Institute Student Seminars, not just in my own city, but I’d even travel to go to others in nearby cities. I then attended the Student Leaders Colloquium, and then became an FI summer intern, where I wrote a book called Youthquake. I was a Koch Foundation Summer Fellow in Washington, DC, and have attended various Institute > for Humane Studies (HIS) and Liberty Fund events over the years. I’m a lawyer by profession; right after articling I worked for several years on Parliament Hill for Preston Manning and later for Stockwell Day. I joined the National Post’s editorial board for two years. After trying my own hand in politics, I wrote a book called Fight Kyoto and practiced law. Last January, with several other Fraser Institute alumni, I founded the Western Standard magazine, which publishes every two weeks in a classical liberal vein.

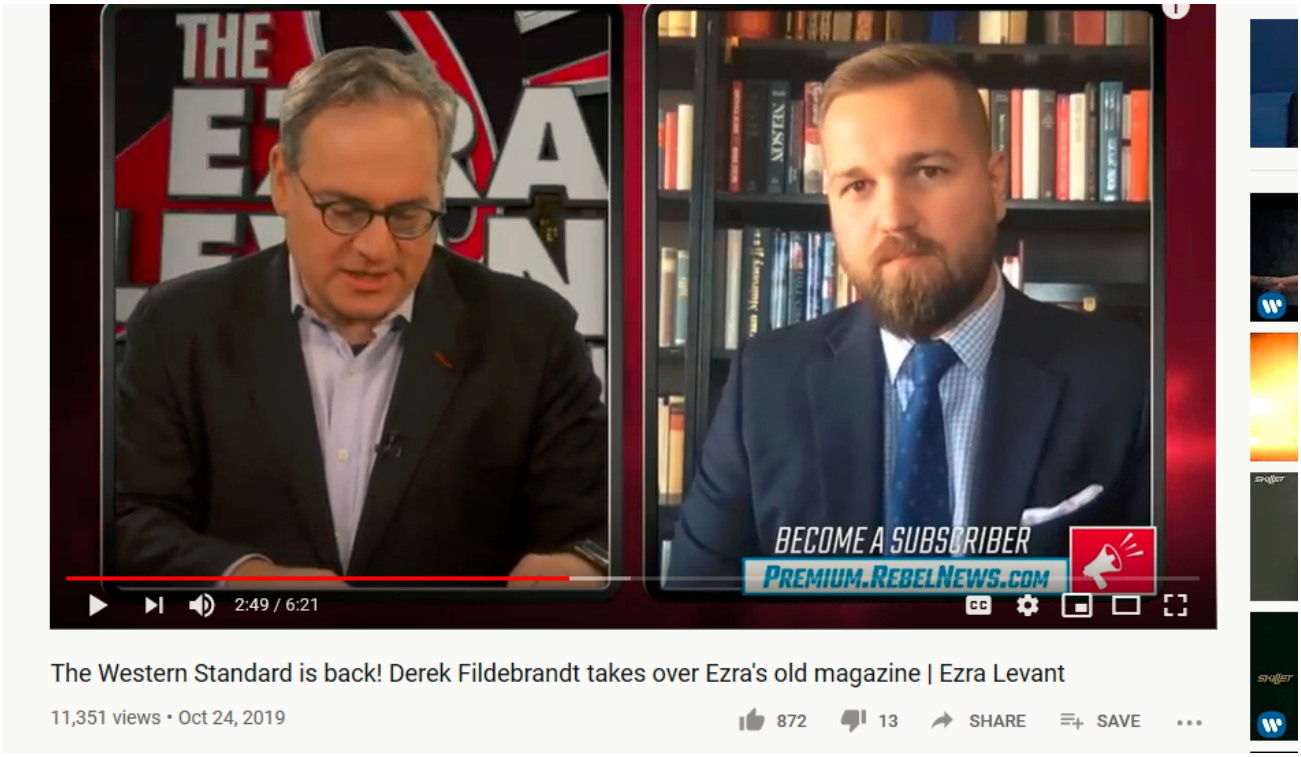
That’s right. Ezra Levant cut his teethfor the Koch Foundation and the Fraser Institute. He then got involved in conservative politics and media outlets. One such venture was founding the Western Standard.

4. Derek Fildebrant: Western Standard Editor

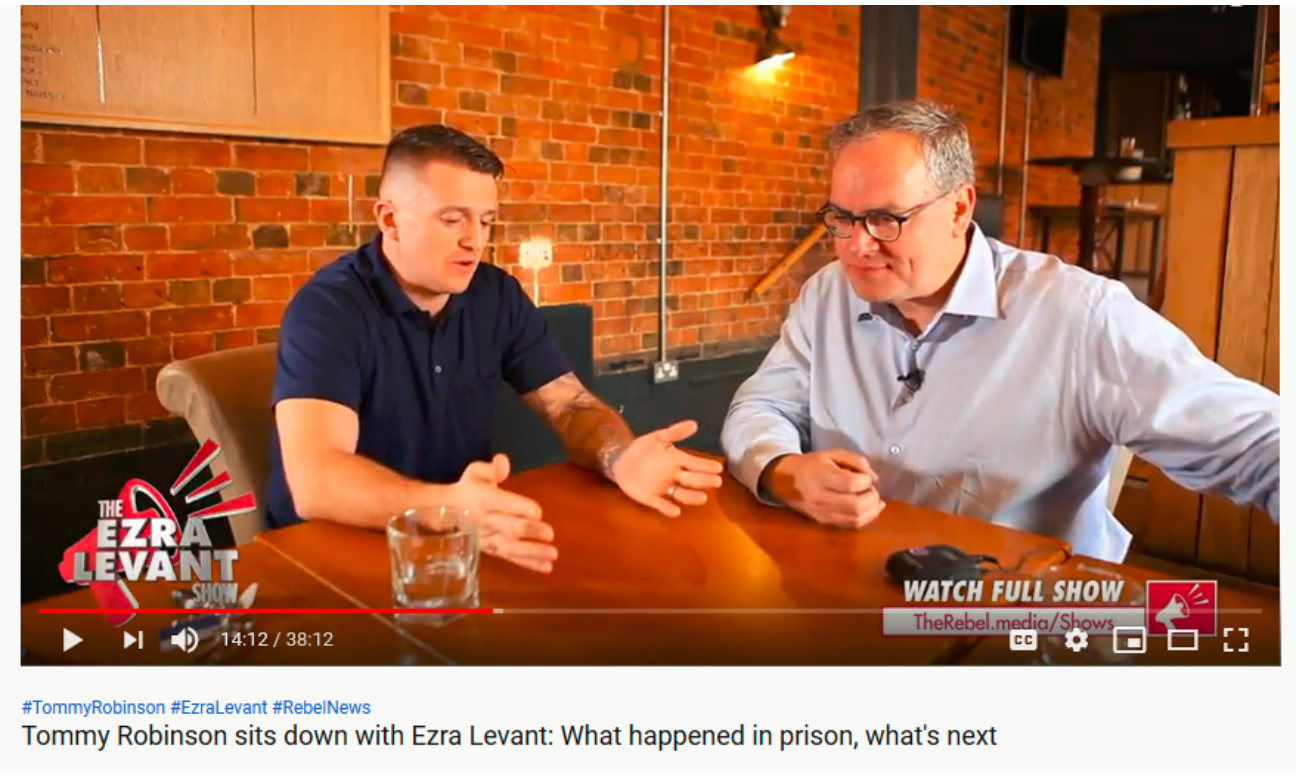


Fildebrandt used to be head of the Alberta Branch of the Canadian Taxpayer’s Federation. However, people weren’t happy when he used his training to privately sublet a publicly funded apartment. Now out of politics, he revived Ezra Levant’s old publication, the Western Standard.

Interesting situation: Both Levant and Fildebrandt have ties to Atlas Network and Koch.

Levant worked at Fraser Institute, Fildebrandt at the Canadian Taxpayer’s Federation. One big happy family.

5. Tommy Robinson, Counter-Jihad Movement



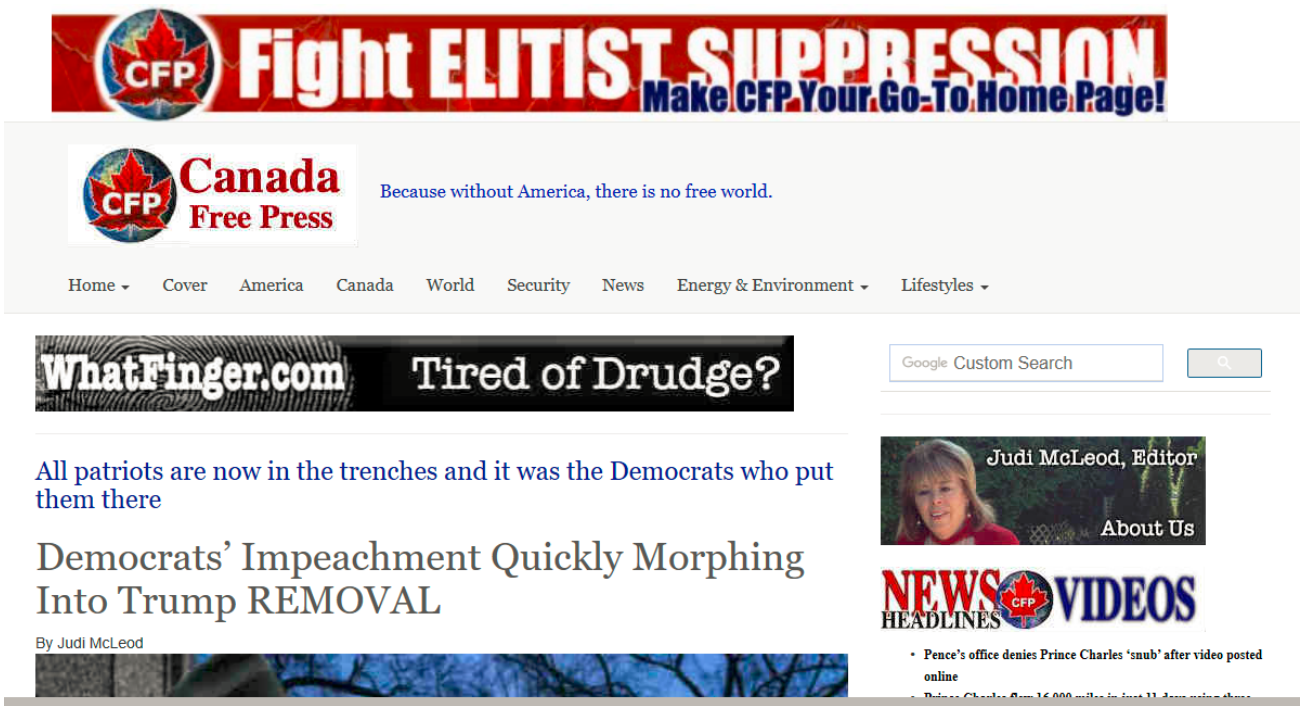
#TommyRobinson #EzraLevant #RebelNews
Tommy Robinson sits down with Ezra Levant: What happened in prison, what's next

Tommy Robinson, whose real name is Stephen Christopher Yaxley-Lennon, was previously employed by Rebel under a position funded by Robert Shillman. He has also appeared many times since leaving. However, there was something not quite right with him. YouTuber Squatting Slav explains here, and also here what is wrong, better than I can. Yaxley-Lennon/Robinson repeatedly calls out Islamic extremism, but turns a blind eye to the groups who are pushing for mass migration of Muslims.

The approach that Yaxley-Lennon/Robinson of getting people in the UK to focus primarily on Islam, and the problems Muslim cause (and ignore other issues), is repeated in Canada with Rebel Media.

Although not part of Atlas Network, Robinson is pushing the agenda of Ezra Levant and others. Focus on the Muslims, ignore the bigger picture. Laura Loomer and Katie Hopkins also appear to follow the same path.

6. Rebel Media In Bed With The PPC



Aside from the very favourable coverage that Rebel Media gives to the People’s Party of Canada, there are some connections that cannot be overlooked.

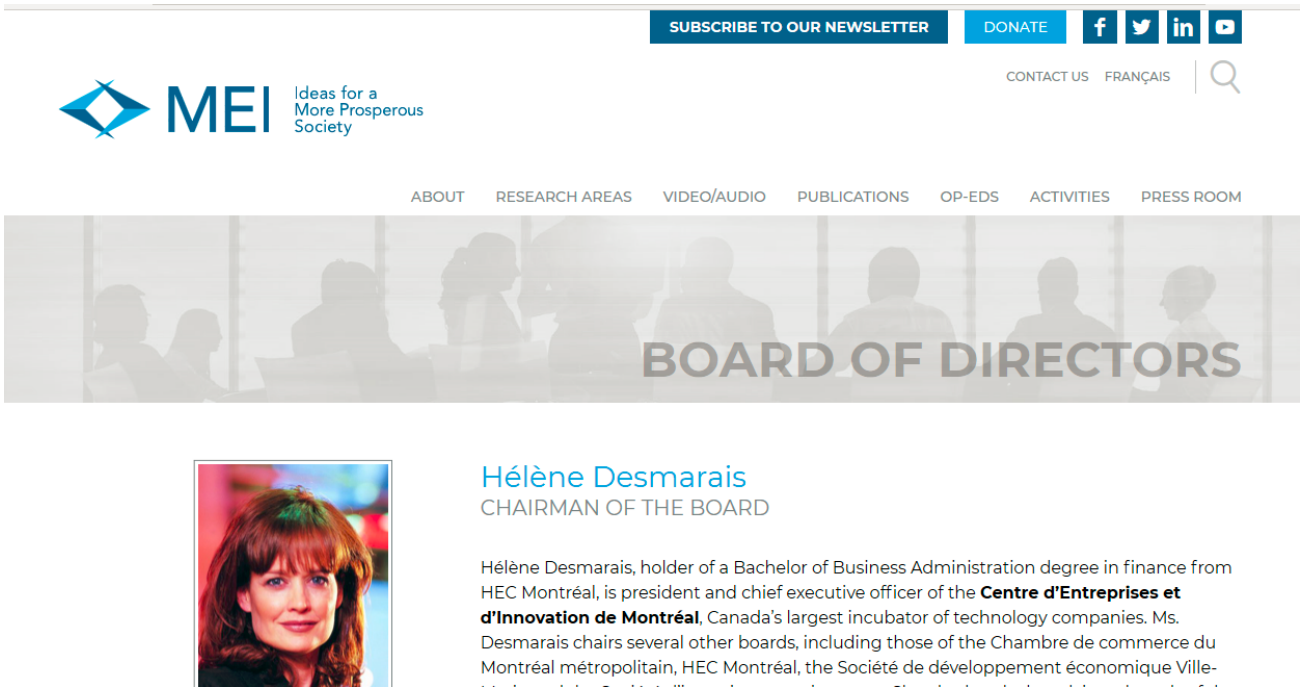
- Maxime Bernier was Executive VP for Montreal Economic Institute
- PPC Staffer Martin Masse also worked for MEI
- PPC Staffer Maxime Hupe also worked for Fraser Institute
- Rebel Media “Commander” Levant worked for Fraser Institute
- Fraser Institute and MEI are both part of Atlas Network

An interesting topic that (to my knowledge) hasn’t been brought up by Ezra or anyone at Rebel. MEI is chaired by Helene Desmarais, wife of Paul Desmarais Jr. And there are 2 other Berniers (Alexandre and Jean) who are still working for MEI.

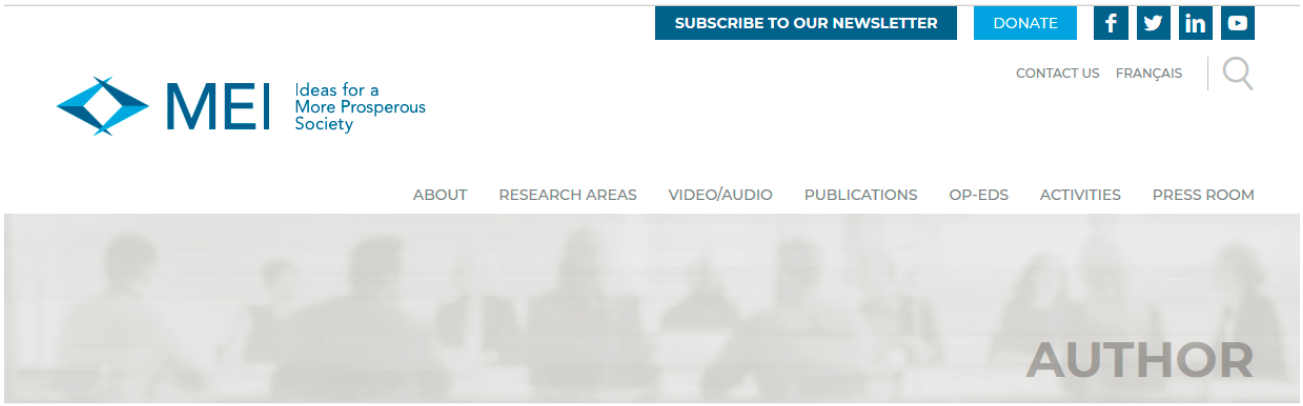
http://archive.is/Zo6rk

http://archive.is/7KowS

http://archive.is/XKZhV



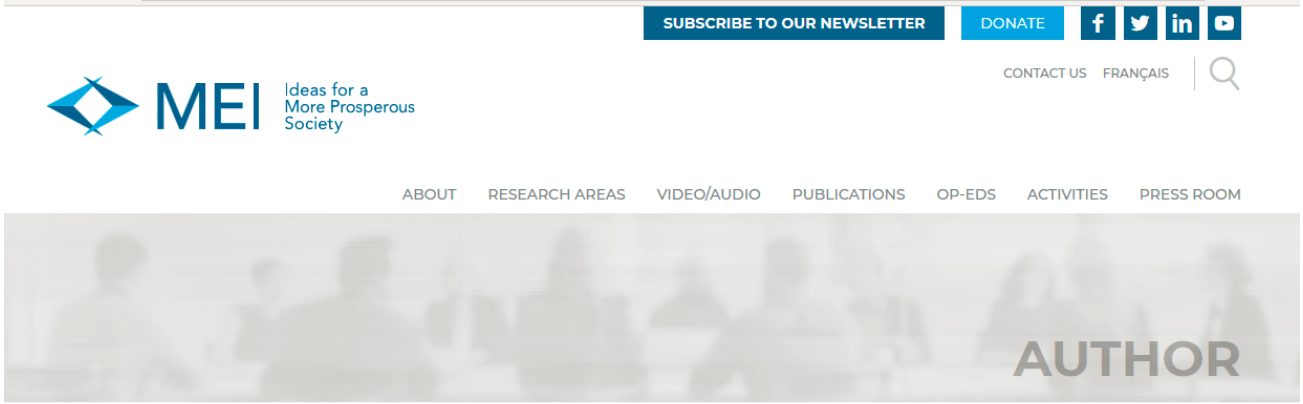
SUBSCRIBE TO OUR NEWSLETTER
DONATE
CONTACT US
FRANÇAIS
MEI
Ideas for a More Prosperous Society
ABOUT
RESEARCH AREAS
VIDEO/AUDIO
PUBLICATIONS
OP-EDS
ACTIVITIES
PRESS ROOM
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Hélène Desmarais
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD
Hélène Desmarais, holder of a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in finance from HEC Montréal, is president and chief executive officer of the Centre d’Entreprises et d’Innovation de Montréal, Canada’s largest incubator of technology companies. Ms. Desmarais chairs several other boards, including those of the Chambre de commerce du Montréal métropolitain, HEC Montréal, the Société de développement économique Ville-



Jean Bernier

DIRECTOR

Jean Bernier sits on the Board of Directors of Circle K. Until December 2017, he was Group President Fuel Americas and Operations North-East at Couche-Tard. Prior to joining Couche-Tard, Mr. Bernier was Executive Vice President of Valero Energy Corporation as well as President of Ultramar Ltd., the Canadian subsidiary of Valero where he was responsible for Valero's retail operations as well as corporate functions of communications, supply chain

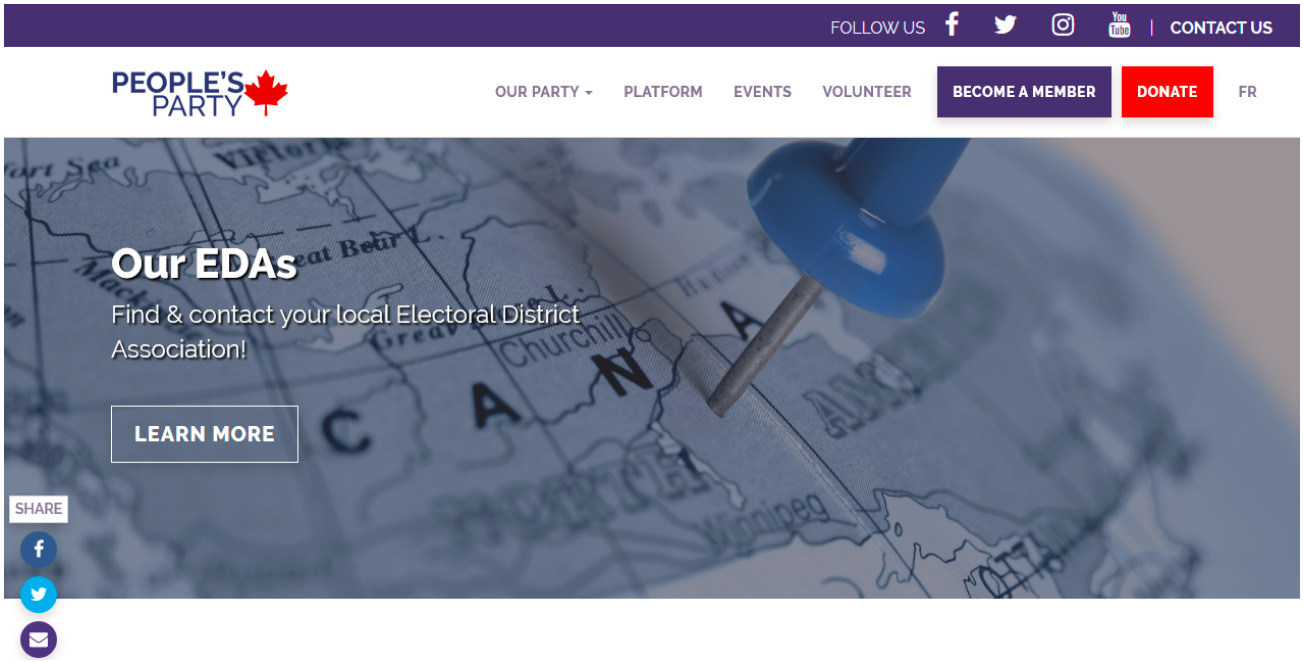


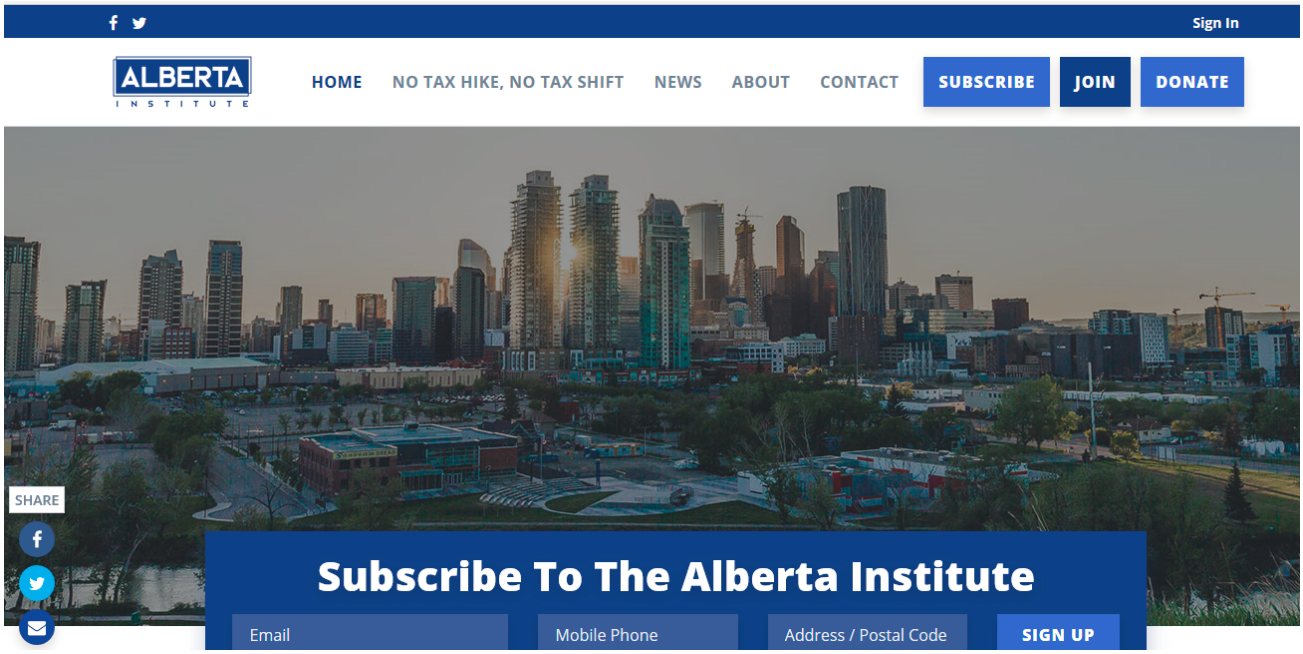
Alexandre Bernier

RESEARCHER, CURRENT AFFAIRS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Alexandre Bernier holds a bachelor's degree in International Studies from the Université de Montréal, with a minor in political science. At university, he developed a strong interest in free-market ideas and the study of political decision-making processes. Among public policy issues, Alexandre is particularly interested in renewable energy support programs. He joined the MEI team in March 2017.

And this will come off as extremely petty and silly, but also needs to be asked: Doesn't the website for the People's Party look and awful lot like the Alberta Institute? AI is also part of Atlas Network.





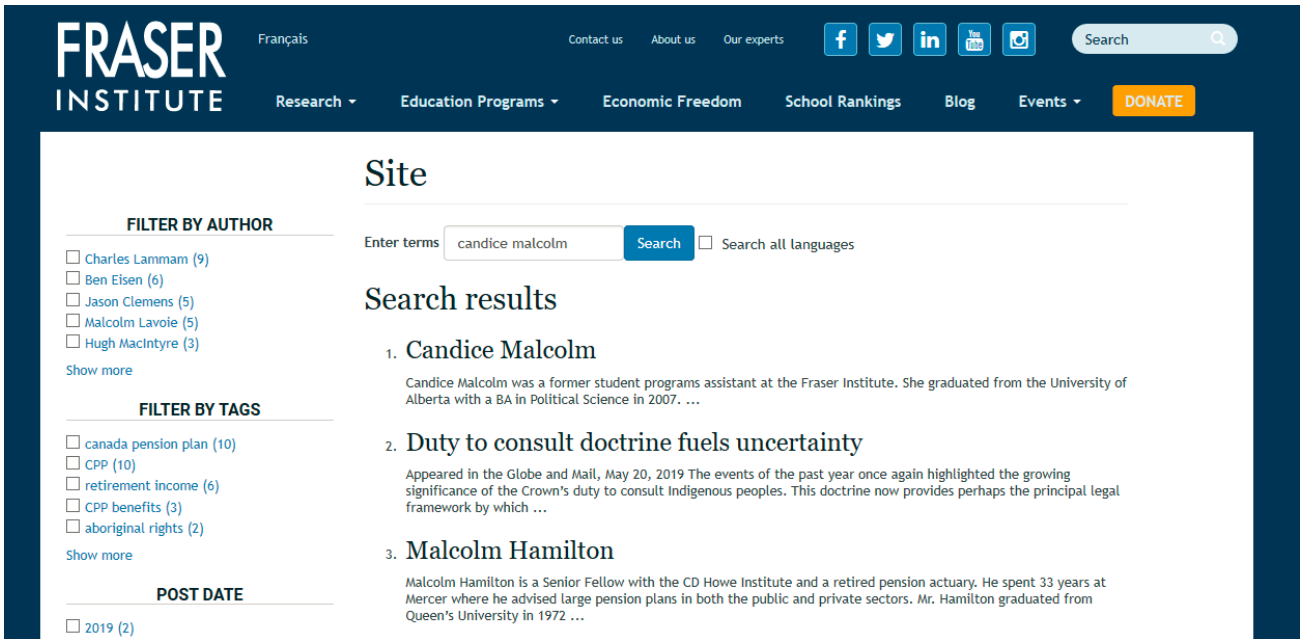
http://archive.is/RFguu
http://archive.is/gZRPu

If Rebel were an outfit aimed at getting to the truth in politics, Ezra Levant would be asking tough questions about PPC policy, how similar it is to CPC, as well as connections such as these. Instead, all of that is shoved off the table for some softballs.

How is NOT exposing obvious globalist ties in any way beneficial to the Canadian public? It’s not, but Ezra works for the same organization, so they get a pass.

Ezra could also ask Bernier why he spends so much time talking about the DAIRY cartel, and never mentions the international BANKING cartel. But we know the answer to that.

7. Candice Malcolm: Koch, Fraser Institute



FRASER INSTITUTE
Français
Contact us
About us
Our experts
Search
Research
Education Programs
Economic Freedom
School Rankings
Blog
Events
DONATE
Site
FILTER BY AUTHOR
Charles Lammam (9)
Ben Eisen (6)
Jason Clemens (5)
Malcolm Lavoie (5)
Hugh MacIntyre (3)
Show more
FILTER BY TAGS
canada pension plan (10)
CPP (10)
retirement income (6)
CPP benefits (3)
aboriginal rights (2)
Show more
POST DATE
2019 (2)
Enter terms
candice malcolm
Search
Search all languages
Search results
1. Candice Malcolm
Candice Malcolm was a former student programs assistant at the Fraser Institute. She graduated from the University of Alberta with a BA in Political Science in 2007. ...
2. Duty to consult doctrine fuels uncertainty
Appeared in the Globe and Mail, May 20, 2019 The events of the past year once again highlighted the growing significance of the Crown’s duty to consult Indigenous peoples. This doctrine now provides perhaps the principal legal framework by which ...
3. Malcolm Hamilton
Malcolm Hamilton is a Senior Fellow with the CD Howe Institute and a retired pension actuary. He spent 33 years at Mercer where he advised large pension plans in both the public and private sectors. Mr. Hamilton graduated from Queen’s University in 1972 ...

Candice worked for Koch and the Fraser Institute, before getting into journalism. She now runs True North Canada, which “identifies” as a non-profit group. Wonder who funds that.

8. Kasra Nejatian (Levinson), Candice’s Husband

Doctor, Vancouver

Mark Mitchell
Businessman, Vancouver

Dr. Michael Walker
Senior Fellow of Fraser Institute, Vancouver

Rachel Curran
Lawyer, Ottawa

Kasra Nejatian
Lawyer and Entrepreneur, Palo Alto

Dr. Eleanor Nicholls
Entrepreneur and Director of Fraser Institute, Vancouver

Interesting side note: Kasra Nejatian (a.k.a. Kasra Levinson) is Candice Malcolm’s husband. He is a Director at the Canadian Constitution Foundation, which is also part of Atlas Network. He’s part of the CCF, and she was part of Fraser and Koch Institute.

Also worth noting is that there are 2 other Directors at the CCF: Michael Walker and Elanor Nicholls, who are also part of the Fraser Institute. But again, they are all part of the same family.

9. Preston Manning, ex-MP

FRASER INSTITUTE
Français
Contact us
About us
Our experts
Search
Research
Education Programs
Economic Freedom
School Rankings
Blog
Events
DONATE
Preston Manning
– President & CEO, Manning Centre for Building Democracy
Preston Manning served as a Member of the Canadian Parliament from 1993 to 2001. He founded two new political parties - the Reform Party of Canada and the Canadian Reform Conservative Alliance - both of which became the official Opposition in the Canadian Parliament. Mr. Manning served as Leader of the Opposition from 1997 to 2000 and was also his party's critic for Science and Technology. In 2007 he was made a Companion of the Order of Canada.
Since retirement from Parliament in 2002, Mr. Manning has released a book entitled Think Big (published by McClelland & Stewart) describing his use of the tools and institutions of democracy to change Canada's national agenda. He has also served as a Senior Fellow of the Canada West Foundation and as a Distinguished Visitor
RECENT COMMENTARIES & BLOG POSTS
Rebalancing of Policies Required to Build Canadian Prosperity
— The Hon. Michael Harris, Preston Manning
Appeared in the National Post, 24 November 2006
With the bounty of our land and the talent of our people, Canadians have the opportunity to enjoy the highest quality of Rebalancing and Revitalizing Canadian Governance
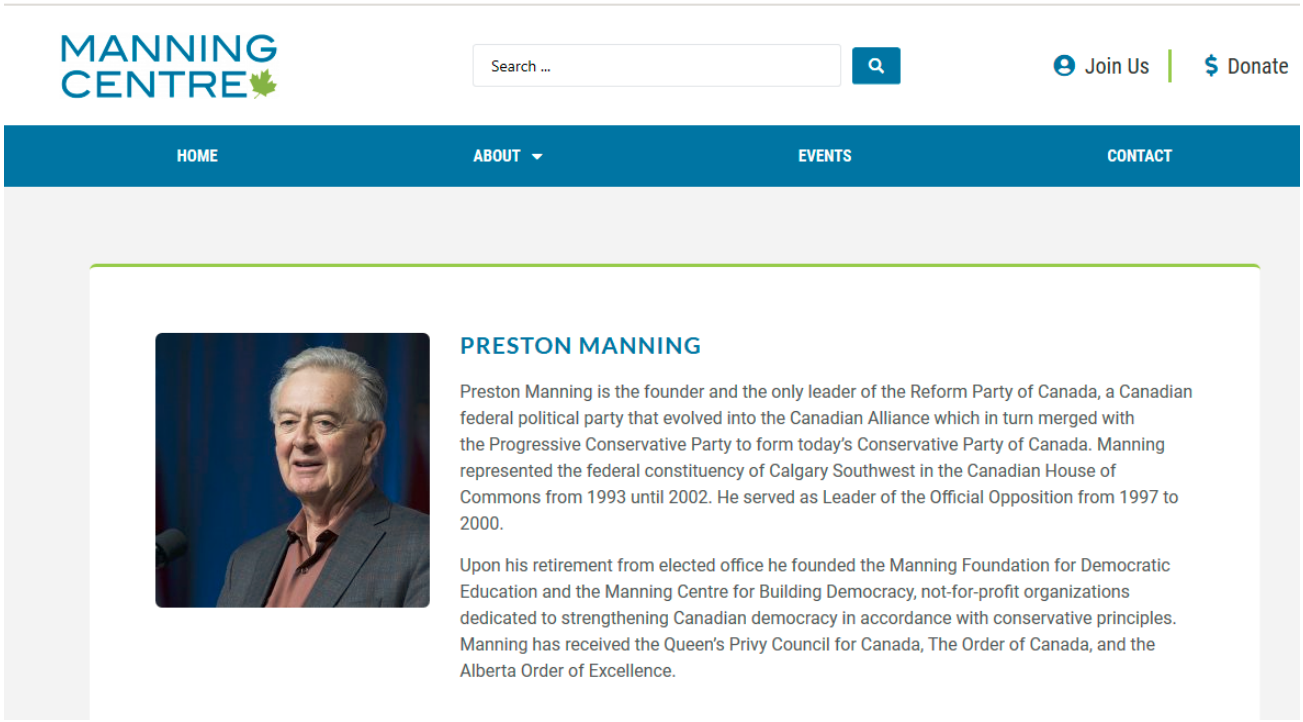
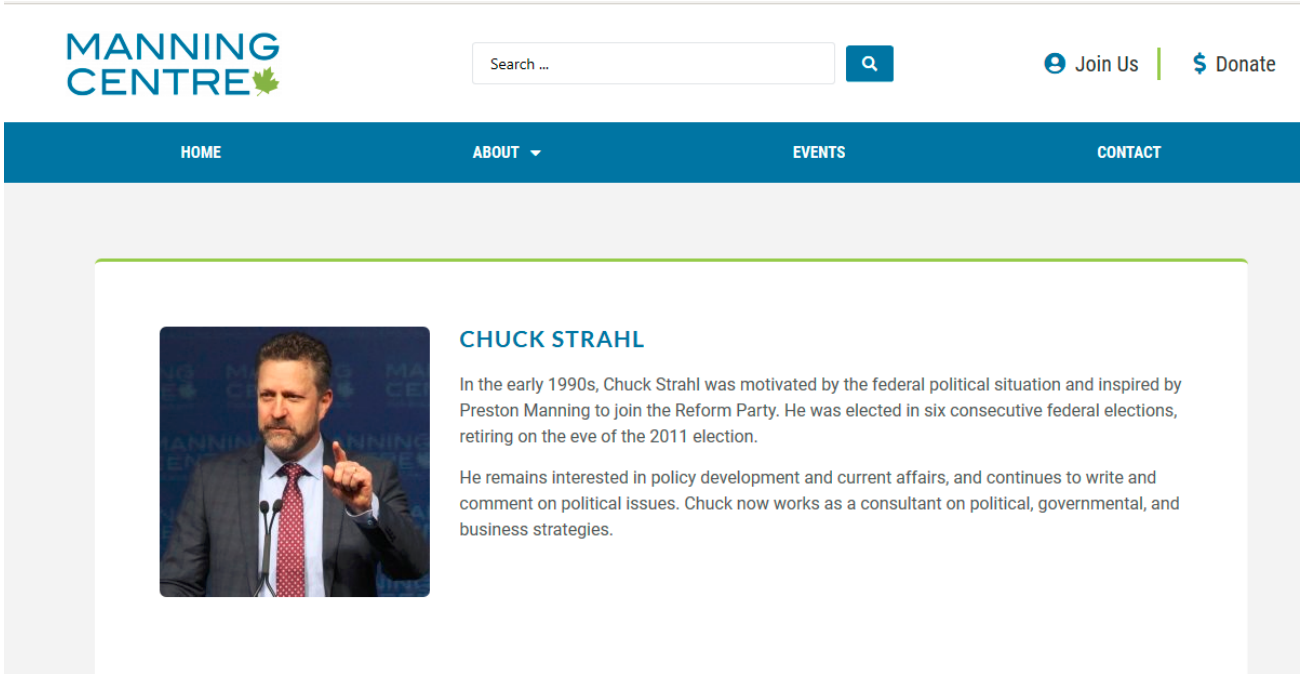
— The Hon. Michael Harris,



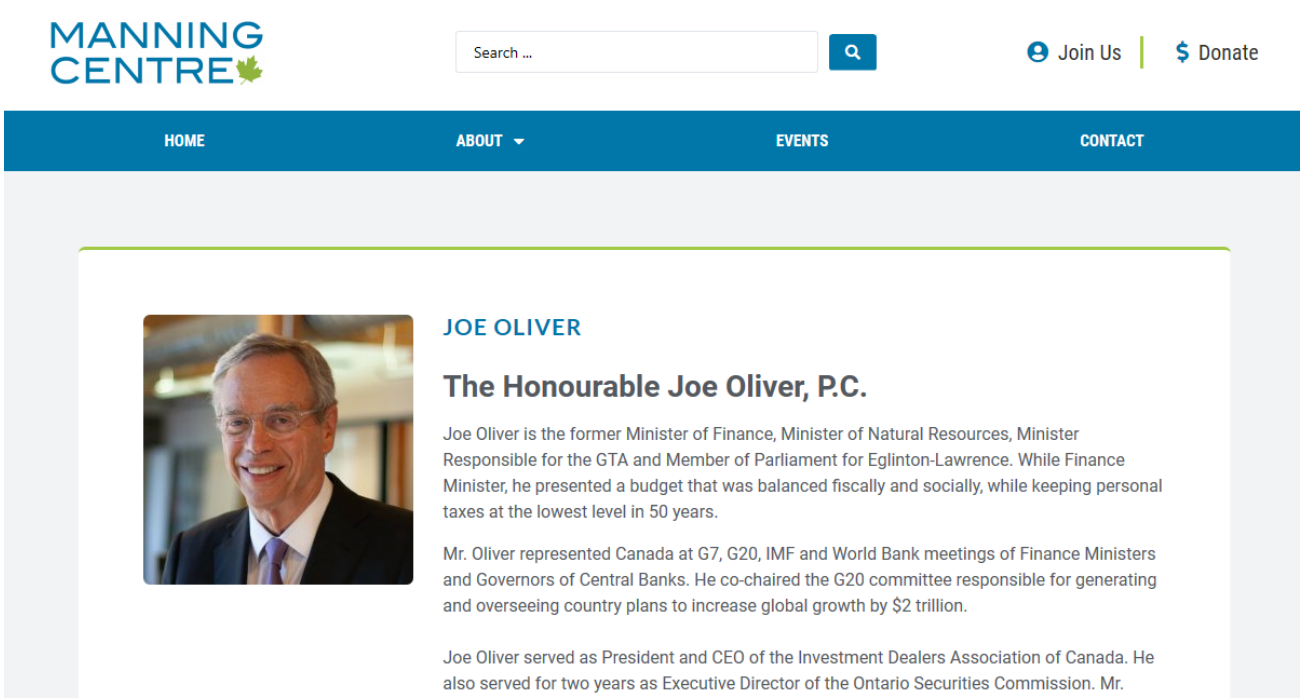
MANNING CENTRE
Search ...
Join Us
$ Donate
HOME
ABOUT
EVENTS
CONTACT
PRESTON MANNING
Preston Manning is the founder and the only leader of the Reform Party of Canada, a Canadian federal political party that evolved into the Canadian Alliance which in turn merged with the Progressive Conservative Party to form today's Conservative Party of Canada. Manning represented the federal constituency of Calgary Southwest in the Canadian House of Commons from 1993 until 2002. He served as Leader of the Official Opposition from 1997 to 2000.
Upon his retirement from elected office he founded the Manning Foundation for Democratic Education and the Manning Centre for Building Democracy, not-for-profit organizations dedicated to strengthening Canadian democracy in accordance with conservative principles. Manning has received the Queen's Privy Council for Canada, The Order of Canada, and the Alberta Order of Excellence.

Former MP and head of the Reform Party, Preston Manning is both head of the Manning Institute (named after him), and part of the Fraser Institute. But let’s not kids ourselves. They are both part of Atlas Network. He’s also part of something called the Smart Prosperity Institute. He also publishes in various Canadian newspapers as a guest columnist.

10. Chuck Strahl, Joe Oliver, ex-MPs



MANNING CENTRE
Search ...
Join Us
Donate
HOME
ABOUT
EVENTS
CONTACT
CHUCK STRAHL
In the early 1990s, Chuck Strahl was motivated by the federal political situation and inspired by Preston Manning to join the Reform Party. He was elected in six consecutive federal elections, retiring on the eve of the 2011 election.
He remains interested in policy development and current affairs, and continues to write and comment on political issues. Chuck now works as a consultant on political, governmental, and business strategies.



MANNING CENTRE
Search ...
Join Us
Donate
HOME
ABOUT
EVENTS
CONTACT
JOE OLIVER
The Honourable Joe Oliver, P.C.
Joe Oliver is the former Minister of Finance, Minister of Natural Resources, Minister Responsible for the GTA and Member of Parliament for Eglinton-Lawrence. While Finance Minister, he presented a budget that was balanced fiscally and socially, while keeping personal taxes at the lowest level in 50 years.
Mr. Oliver represented Canada at G7, G20, IMF and World Bank meetings of Finance Ministers and Governors of Central Banks. He co-chaired the G20 committee responsible for generating and overseeing country plans to increase global growth by $2 trillion.
Joe Oliver served as President and CEO of the Investment Dealers Association of Canada. He also served for two years as Executive Director of the Ontario Securities Commission. Mr.

Also in the Manning Institute are Joe Oliver and Chuck Strahl. Both are former Members of Parliament, and both now call themselves consultants. They do occasionally speak publicly.

11. Tom Flanagan: Author, Campaign Manager

FRASER INSTITUTE
Français
Contact us
About us
Our experts
Search
Research
Education Programs
Economic Freedom
School Rankings
Blog
Events
DONATE
Tom Flanagan
– Professor Emeritus of Political Science and Distinguished Fellow, School of Public Policy, University of Calgary
Tom Flanagan, Senior Fellow of the Fraser Institute, is Professor Emeritus of Political Science and Distinguished Fellow, at the School of Public Policy, University of Calgary, and Chair, Aboriginal Futures, at the Frontier Centre for Public Policy. He received his B.A. from Notre Dame and his M.A. and Ph.D. from Duke University. He taught political science at the University of Calgary from 1968 until retirement in 2013. He is the author of many books and articles on topics such as Louis Riel and Metis history, aboriginal rights and land claims, Canadian political parties, political campaigning, and applications of game theory to politics. His books have won six prizes, including the Donner-Canadian Prize for best book of the Contact:
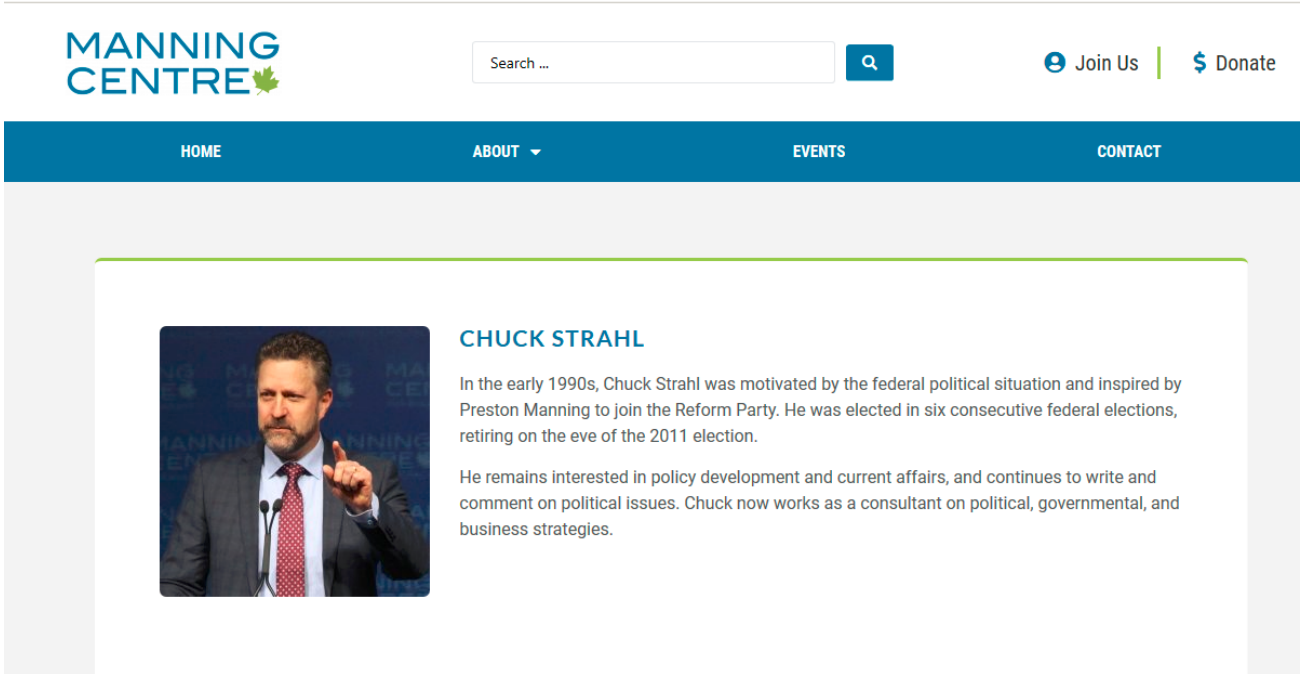
communications@fraserinstitute.org
RECENT COMMENTARIES & BLOG POSTS
Struggling First Nations share common characteristics
— Tom Flanagan
Appeared in the Globe and Mail, December 18, 2019
Most First Nations are in remote locations where natural resource development is the only likely source of economic advancement.
B.C. First Nation’s prosperity offers important lessons to other First Nations
— Tom Flanagan
Appeared in the Globe and Mail

> In the political realm, he managed Stephen Harper’s campaigns for leadership of the Canadian Alliance and the Conservative Party of Canada, the 2004 Conservative national campaign, and the 2012 Wildrose Alberta provincial campaign.

When not involved in politics, Flanagan writes articles and books. Very prolific writer.

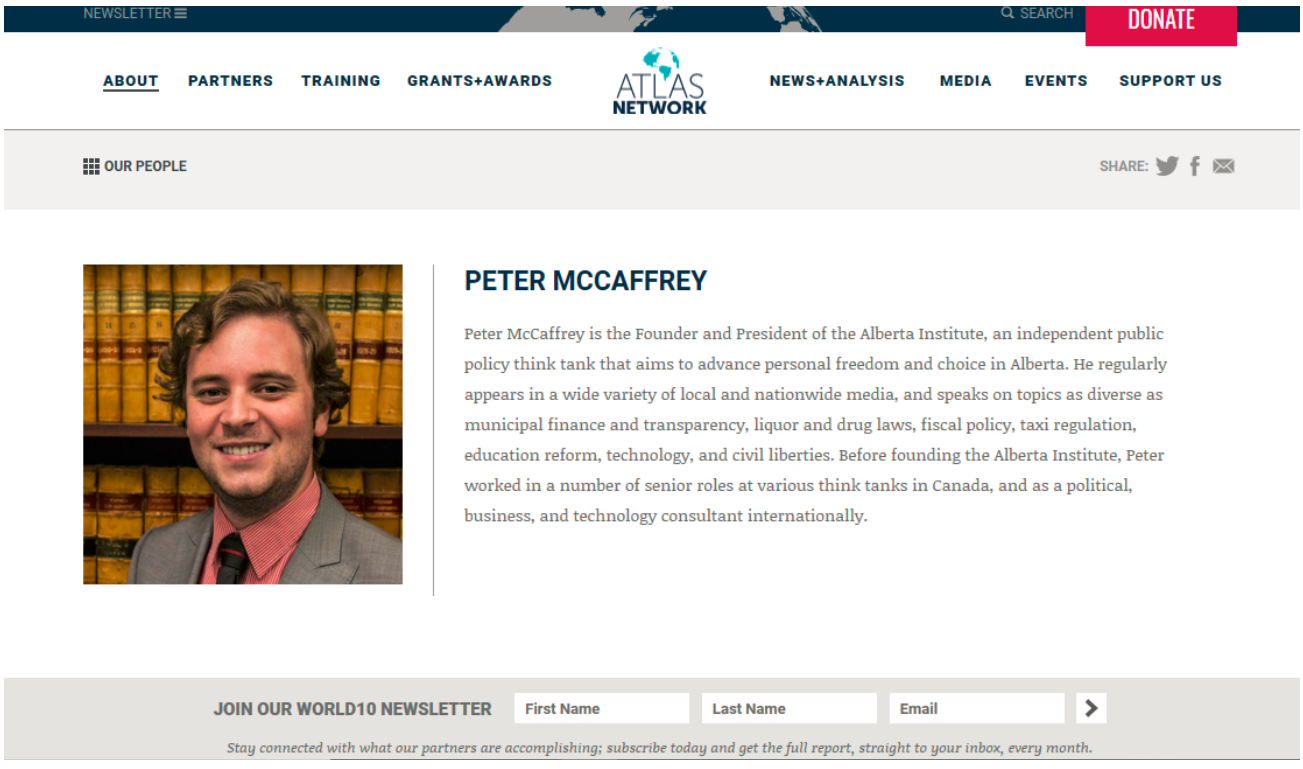
12. Danielle Smith: NewsTalk 770 Host



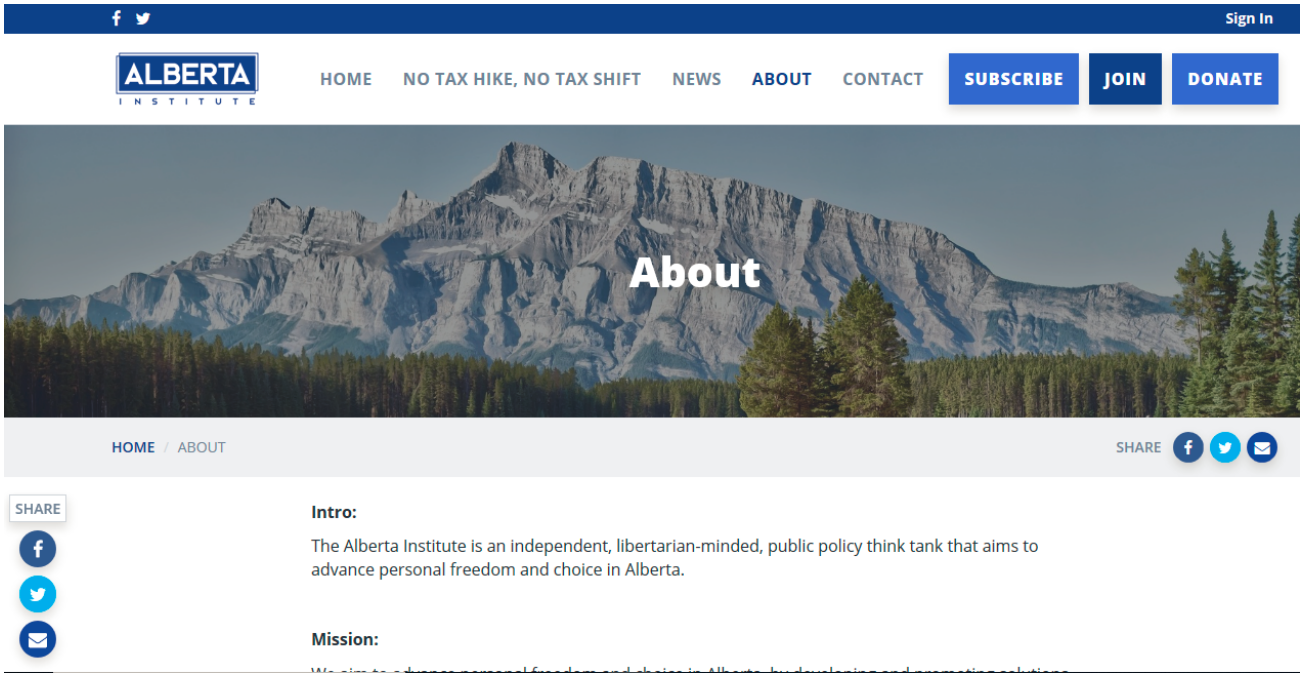
MANNING CENTRE
Search ...
Join Us
Donate
HOME
ABOUT
EVENTS
CONTACT
CHUCK STRAHL
In the early 1990s, Chuck Strahl was motivated by the federal political situation and inspired by Preston Manning to join the Reform Party. He was elected in six consecutive federal elections, retiring on the eve of the 2011 election.
He remains interested in policy development and current affairs, and continues to write and comment on political issues. Chuck now works as a consultant on political, governmental, and business strategies.

Smith interned for the Fraser Institute in 1996/1997. She also hosted Global Sunday and wrote for the Calgary Herald. After a stint in Alberta politics, she hosts an afternoon radio show.

13. Peter McCaffrey: Calgary Sun, HuffPo



NEWSLETTER
SEARCH
DONATE
ABOUT
PARTNERS
TRAINING
GRANTS+AWARDS
ATLAS NETWORK
NEWS+ANALYSIS
MEDIA
EVENTS
SUPPORT US
OUR PEOPLE
SHARE:
PETER MCCAFFREY
Peter McCaffrey is the Founder and President of the Alberta Institute, an independent public policy think tank that aims to advance personal freedom and choice in Alberta. He regularly appears in a wide variety of local and nationwide media, and speaks on topics as diverse as municipal finance and transparency, liquor and drug laws, fiscal policy, taxi regulation, education reform, technology, and civil liberties. Before founding the Alberta Institute, Peter worked in a number of senior roles at various think tanks in Canada, and as a political, business, and technology consultant internationally.
JOIN OUR WORLD10 NEWSLETTER
First Name
Last Name
Email
Stay connected with what our partners are accomplishing; subscribe today and get the full report, straight to your inbox, every month.

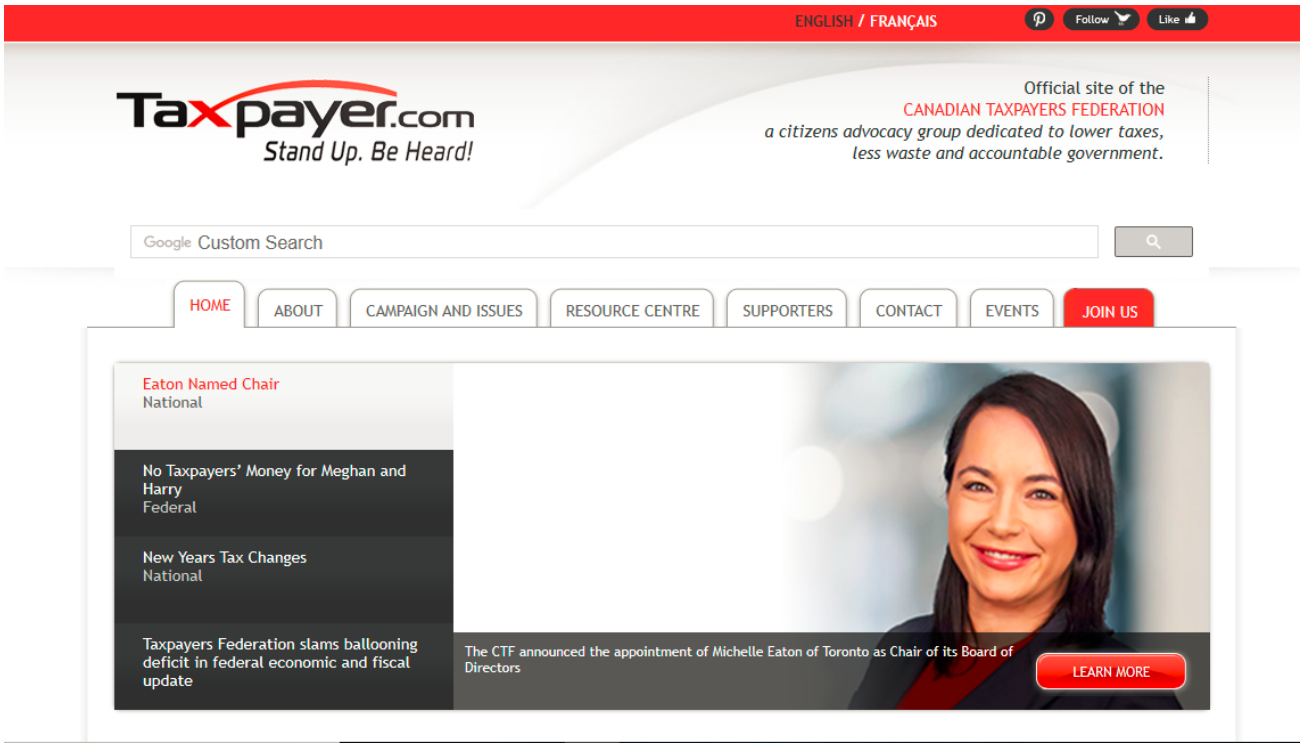


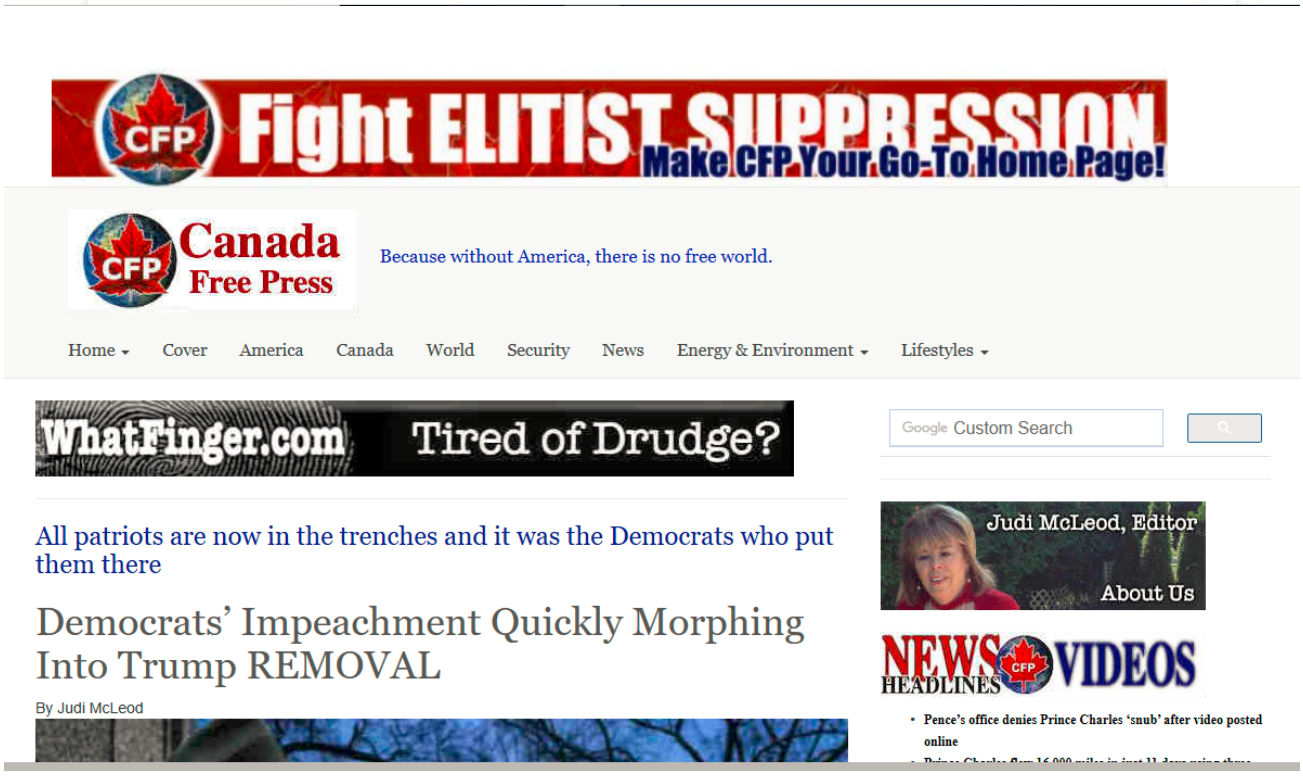
Intro:
The Alberta Institute is an independent, libertarian-minded, public policy think tank that aims to advance personal freedom and choice in Alberta.
.
Mission:
We aim to advance personal freedom and choice in Alberta, by developing and promoting solutions to public policy issues.
We focus on a wide variety of public policy issues at both the provincial and municipal level.
.
Independence:
We don’t accept any government funding and we never will.
We think you should be free to choose, for yourself, which organizations to support.
We’d welcome your donation if you like what we do, but we won’t force you to give us money if you don’t!

So, the Alberta Institute claims not to accept any government funding whatsoever, and pledges never to do so. Sounds great, though it begs the obvious question: Exactly who does fund the Alberta Institute?

President Peter McCaffrey writes to several publications such as Calgary Sun, the Calgary Herald. But his organization is just another part of the Koch-funded Atlas Network.

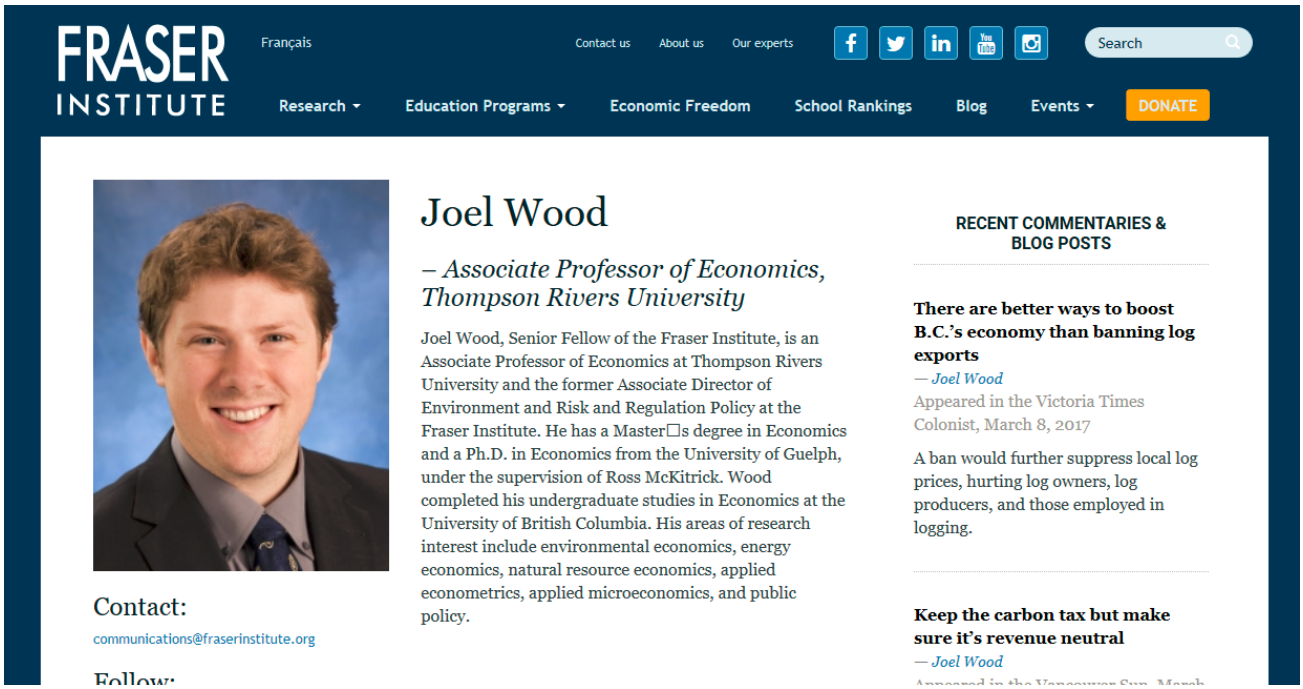
14. Canadian Taxpayers’ Fed: Canada Free Press





A surprisingly large number of articles from the appear published by the Canada Free Press. It’s almost as if the online outlet was specifically catering to them.

15. Joel Wood: Professor & Lecturer

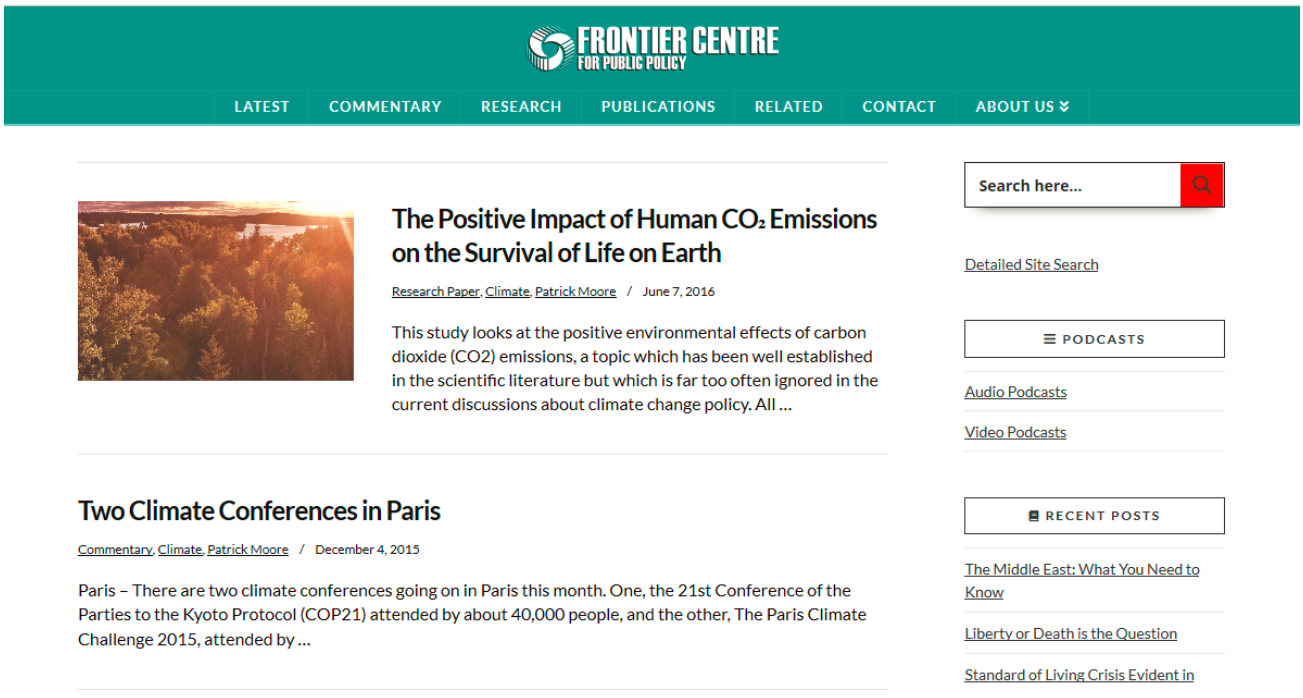


FRASER INSTITUTE
Français
Contact us
About us
Our experts
Search
Research
Education Programs
Economic Freedom
School Rankings
Blog
Events
DONATE
Joel Wood
– Associate Professor of Economics, Thompson Rivers University
Joel Wood, Senior Fellow of the Fraser Institute, is an Associate Professor of Economics at Thompson Rivers University and the former Associate Director of Environment and Risk and Regulation Policy at the Fraser Institute. He has a Master□s degree in Economics and a Ph.D. in Economics from the University of Guelph, under the supervision of Ross McKitrick. Wood completed his undergraduate studies in Economics at the University of British Columbia. His areas of research interest include environmental economics, energy economics, natural resource economics, applied econometrics, applied microeconomics, and public policy.
Contact:
communications@fraserinstitute.org
Follow:
RECENT COMMENTARIES & BLOG POSTS
There are better ways to boost B.C.’s economy than banning log exports
— Joel Wood
Appeared in the Victoria Times Colonist, March 8, 2017
A ban would further suppress local log prices, hurting log owners, log producers, and those employed in logging.
Keep the carbon tax but make sure it’s revenue neutral
— Joel Wood

While many in the “Conservative Inc.” movement condemn the carbon tax idea as wasteful, Woods looks at economic options that can come from such taxation. Keep in mind, he is no scientist, he still weighs options, for how the cash grab can be done. He is a university professor who moonlights as a public speaker.

Just another Koch/Fraser operative masquerading as an objective and impartial researcher.

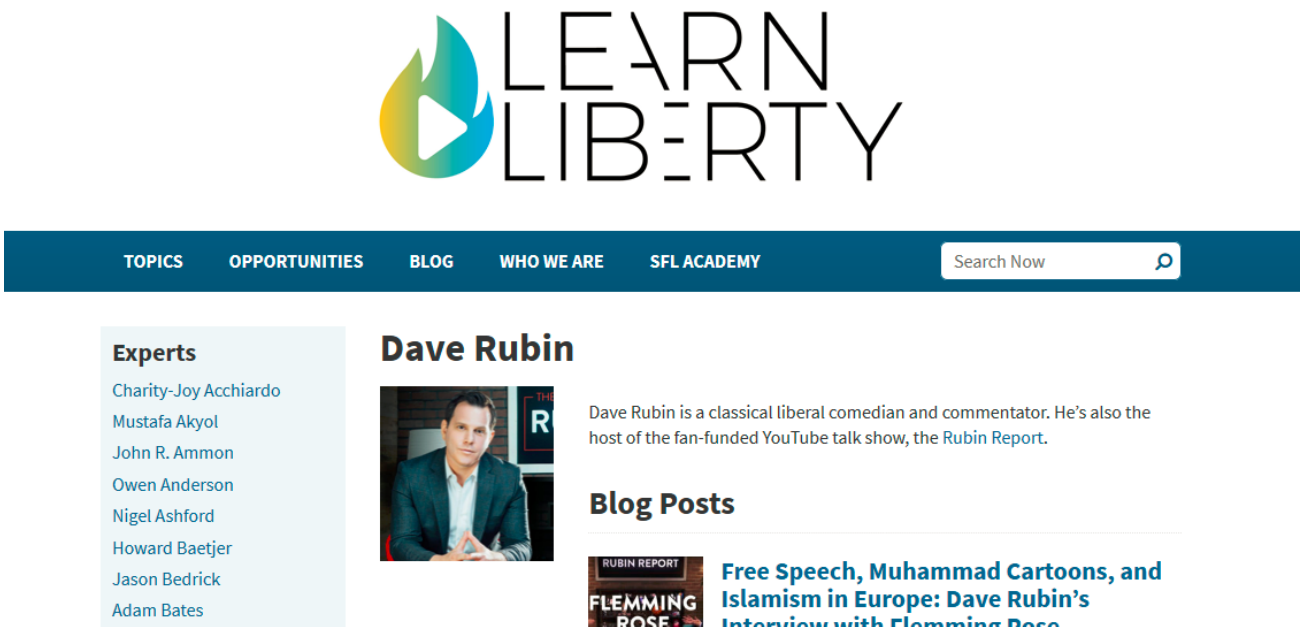
16. Patrick Moore, Environmental Activist

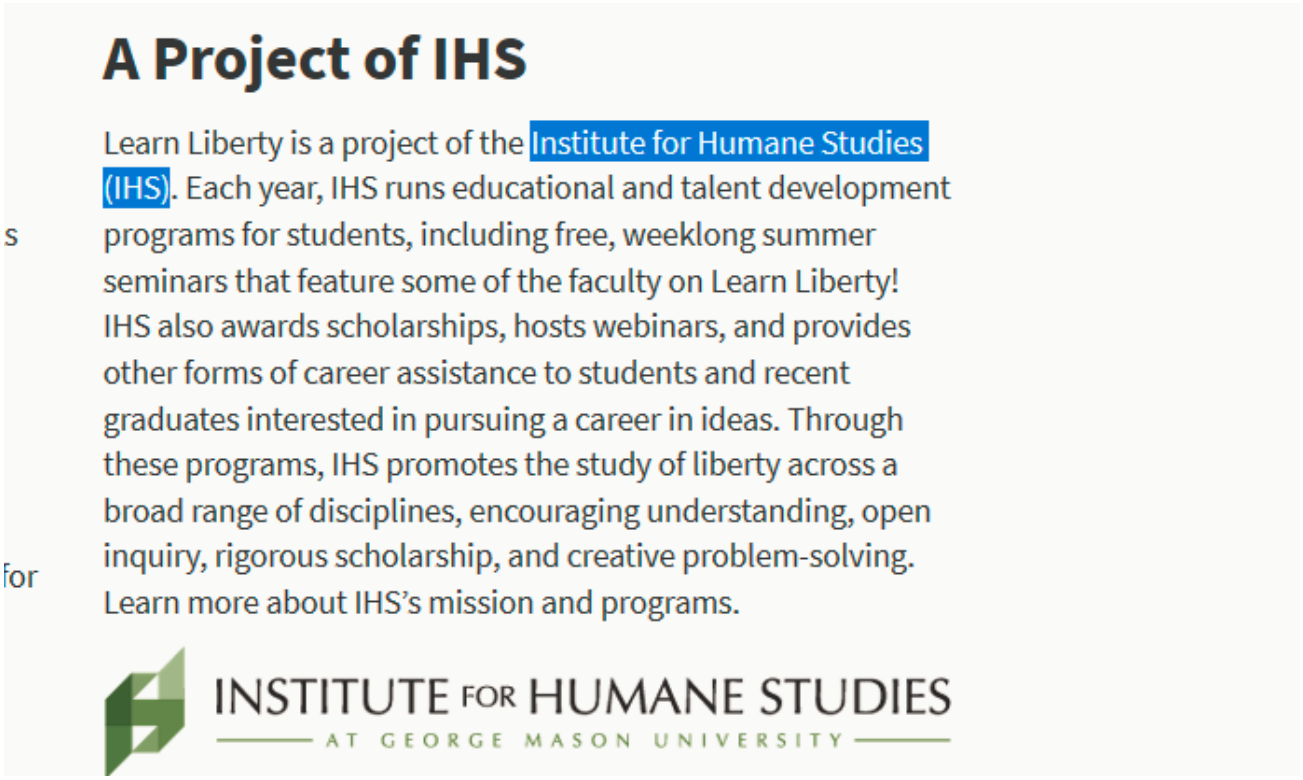


FRONTIER CENTRE
FOR PUBLIC POLICY
LATEST
COMMENTARY
RESEARCH
PUBLICATIONS
RELATED
CONTACT
ABOUT US
The Positive Impact of Human CO_2 Emissions on the Survival of Life on Earth
Research Paper, Climate, Patrick Moore / June 7, 2016
This study looks at the positive environmental effects of carbon dioxide (CO2) emissions, a topic which has been well established in the scientific literature but which is far too often ignored in the current discussions about climate change policy. All ...
Two Climate Conferences in Paris
Commentary, Climate, Patrick Moore / December 4, 2015
Paris – There are two climate conferences going on in Paris this month. One, the 21st Conference of the Parties to the Kyoto Protocol (COP21) attended by about 40,000 people, and the other, The Paris Climate Challenge 2015, attended by ...
Search here...
Detailed Site Search
PODCASTS
Audio Podcasts
Video Podcasts
RECENT POSTS
The Middle East: What You Need to Know
Liberty or Death is the Question
Standard of Living Crisis Evident in

Patrick Moore has gone on many channels and podcasts to discuss the climate change hoaz, and that is appreciated. However, he is notorious for saying it was safe to drink glyphosate, but refusing to do it himself. Makes one wonder what else he doesn’t really believe in. And given his employment in the Frontier Center for Public Policy, it is legitimate to ask where his interests lie.

17. Dave Rubin: The Rubin Report



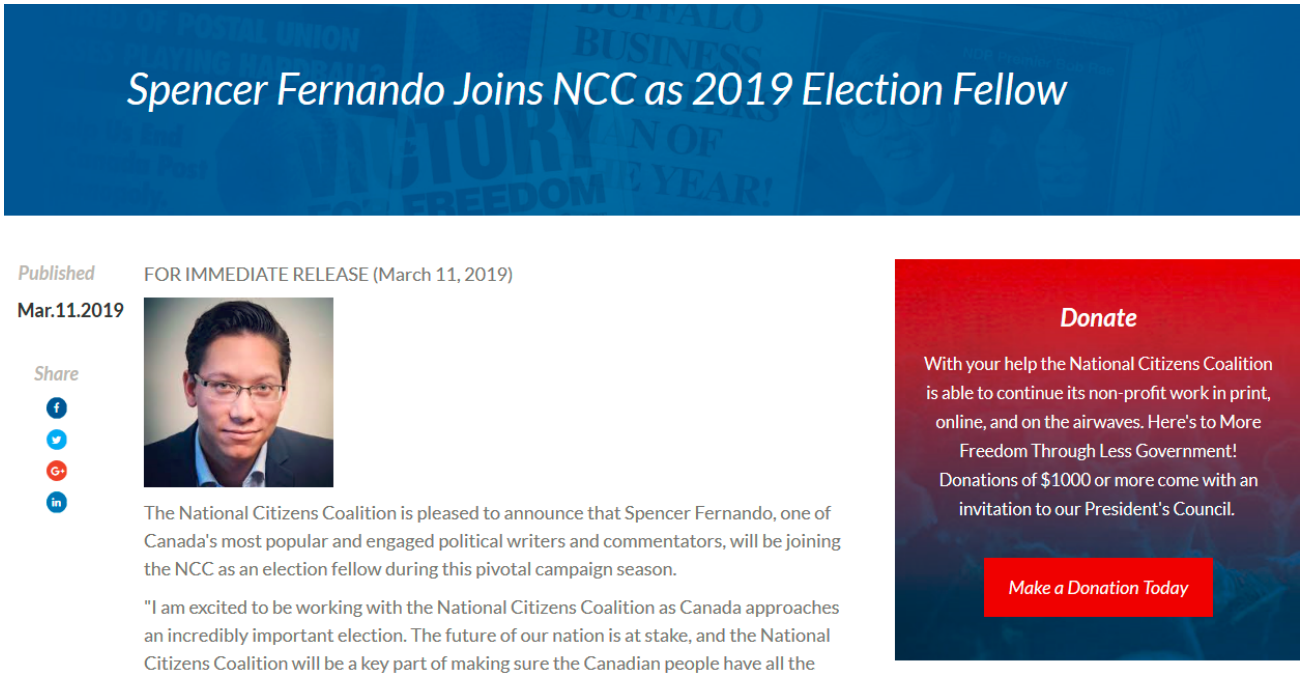


A Project of IHS
Learn Liberty is a project of the Institute for Humane Studies (IHS). Each year, IHS runs educational and talent development programs for students, including free, weeklong summer seminars that feature some of the faculty on Learn Liberty! IHS also awards scholarships, hosts webinars, and provides other forms of career assistance to students and recent graduates interested in pursuing a career in ideas. Through these programs, IHS promotes the study of liberty across a broad range of disciplines, encouraging understanding, open inquiry, rigorous scholarship, and creative problem-solving. Learn more about IHS's mission and programs.
INSTITUTE FOR HUMANE STUDIES
AT GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY

FRASER INSTITUTE
Français
Contact us
About us
Our experts
Search
Research
Education Programs
Economic Freedom
School Rankings
Blog
Events
DONATE
Preston Manning
– President & CEO, Manning Centre for Building Democracy
Preston Manning served as a Member of the Canadian Parliament from 1993 to 2001. He founded two new political parties - the Reform Party of Canada and the Canadian Reform Conservative Alliance - both of which became the official Opposition in the Canadian Parliament. Mr. Manning served as Leader of the Opposition from 1997 to 2000 and was also his party's critic for Science and Technology. In 2007 he was made a Companion of the Order of Canada.
Since retirement from Parliament in 2002, Mr. Manning has released a book entitled Think Big (published by McClelland & Stewart) describing his use of the tools and institutions of democracy to change Canada's national agenda. He has also served as a Senior Fellow of the Canada West Foundation and as a Distinguished Visitor
RECENT COMMENTARIES & BLOG POSTS
Rebalancing of Policies Required to Build Canadian Prosperity
— The Hon. Michael Harris, Preston Manning
Appeared in the National Post, 24 November 2006
With the bounty of our land and the talent of our people, Canadians have the opportunity to enjoy the highest quality of
Rebalancing and Revitalizing Canadian Governance
— The Hon. Michael Harris,

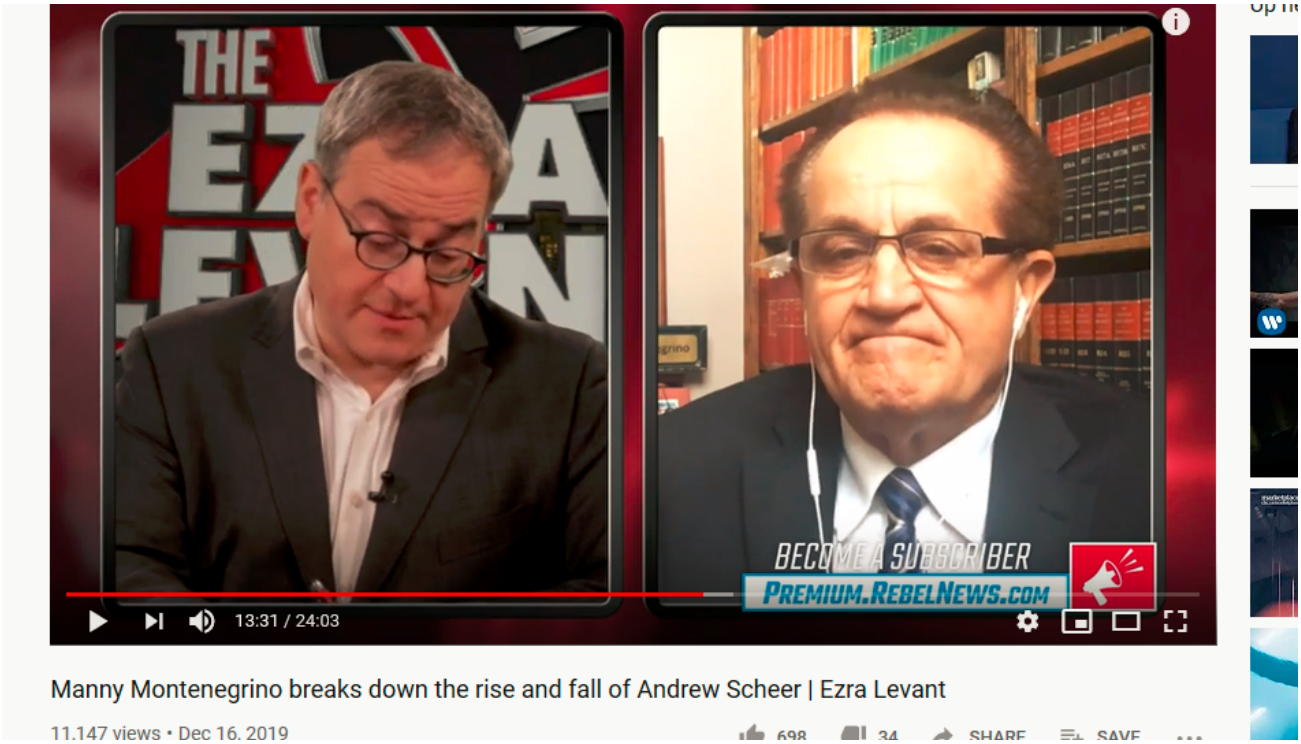
Although he is American, Rubin is worth discussing. He is fairly popular with the Canadian public in the alt-media scene. After leaving The Young Turks, Rubin partnered with Learn Liberty, which is a project of the Institute For Humane Studies. One of the Directors of IHS is none other than Charles Koch. Guess Koch pays better than Al-Jazeera, who funds TYT.

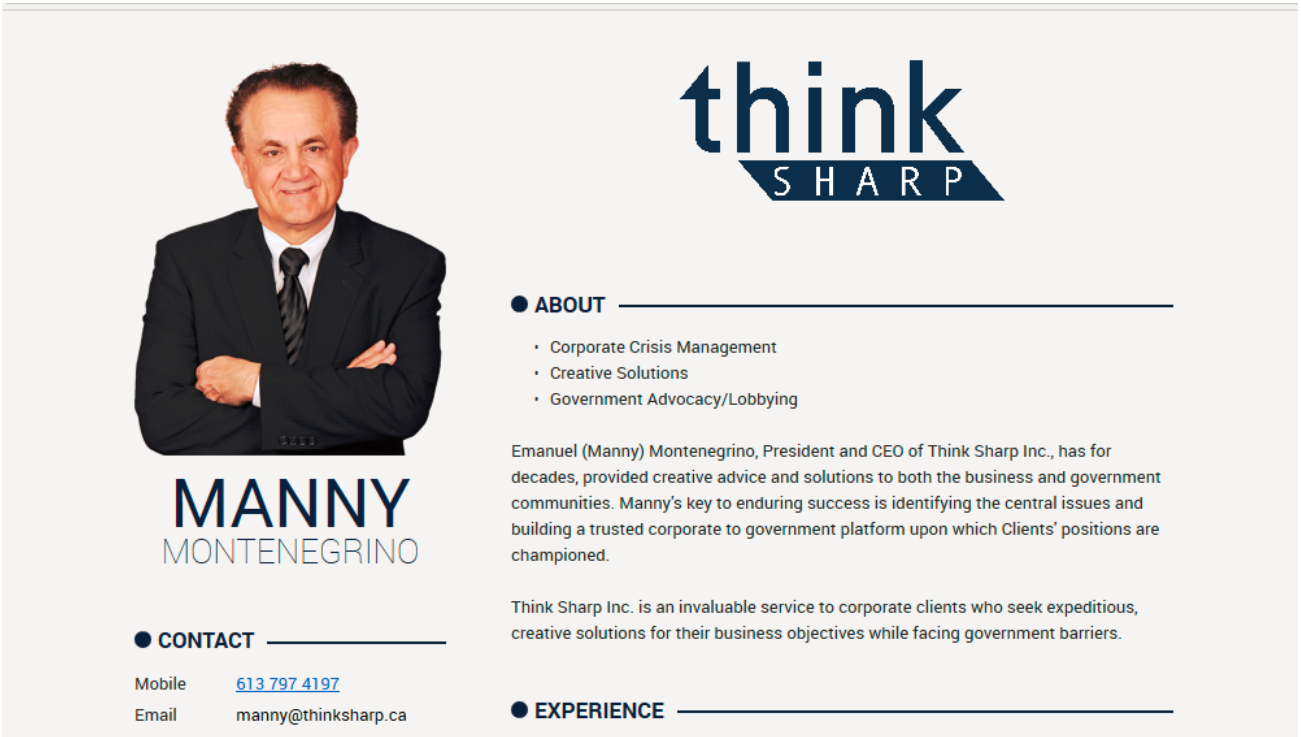
18. Honourable Mentions



Spencer Fernando Joins NCC as 2019 Election Fellow
Published
Mar.11.2019
Share
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (March 11, 2019)
The National Citizens Coalition is pleased to announce that Spencer Fernando, one of Canada's most popular and engaged political writers and commentators, will be joining the NCC as an election fellow during this pivotal campaign season.
"I am excited to be working with the National Citizens Coalition as Canada approaches an incredibly important election. The future of our nation is at stake, and the National Citizens Coalition will be a key part of making sure the Canadian people have all the
Donate
With your help the National Citizens Coalition is able to continue its non-profit work in print, online, and on the airwaves. Here's to More Freedom Through Less Government! Donations of $1000 or more come with an invitation to our President's Council.
Make a Donation Today

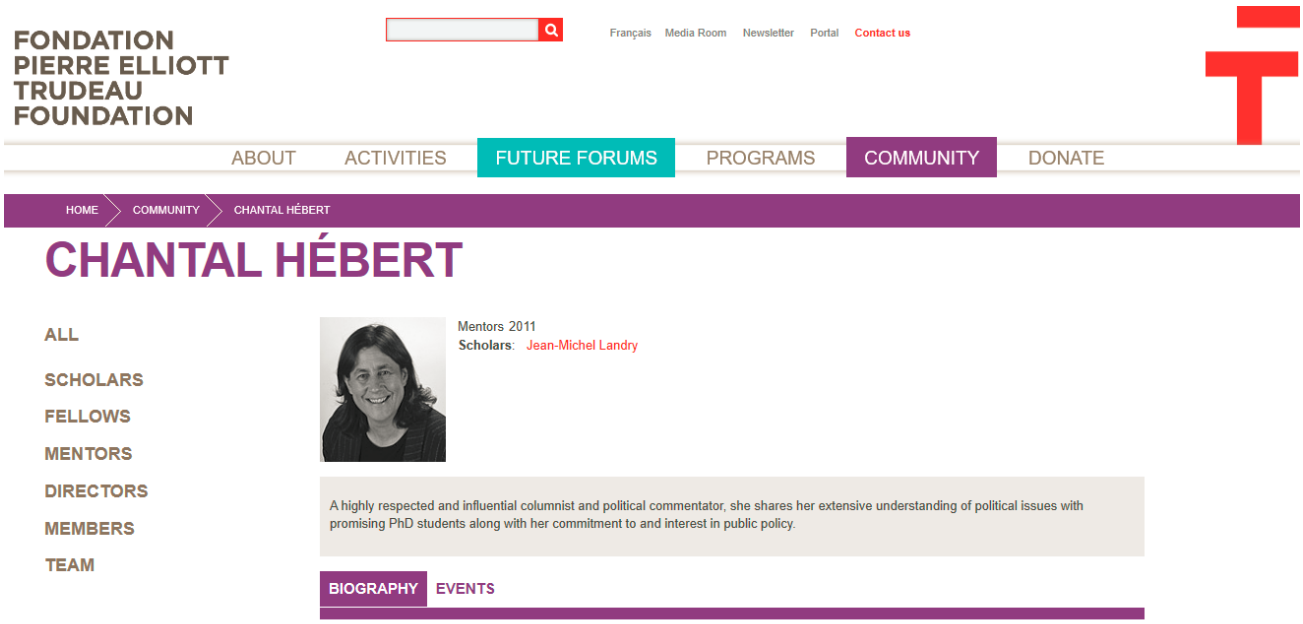
Fernando joined the National Citizen’s Coalition, which is the organization Stephen Harper used to run. While presenting himself as an independent, his website now amounts to rehashing anti-Trudeau talking points. No surprise, considering who owns him now.





think
SHARP
MANNY
MONTENEGRINO
ABOUT
Corporate Crisis Management
Creative Solutions
Government Advocacy/Lobbying
Emanuel (Manny) Montenegrino, President and CEO of Think Sharp Inc., has for decades, provided creative advice and solutions to both the business and government communities. Manny's key to enduring success is identifying the central issues and building a trusted corporate to government platform upon which Clients' positions are championed.
Think Sharp Inc. is an invaluable service to corporate clients who seek expeditious, creative solutions for their business objectives while facing government barriers.
CONTACT
Mobile 613 797 4197
Email manny@thinksharp.ca
EXPERIENCE

Manny works as a lobbyist, but comes on shows such as Rebel Media and promotes himself as a commentator. He is also an advisor for the Conservative Party of Canada.



Quebec media figure Chantel Hebert is also a member of the Trudeau Foundation.

> Chantal Hébert is a national affairs writer with the Toronto Star and a guest columnist for Le Devoir and L’Actualité. She is a weekly participant on the political panel At Issue on the CBC’s The National as well as Radio-Canada’s Les Coulisses du pouvoir.
> Ms Hébert began her career in Toronto as a reporter for the regional newsroom of Radio-Canada in 1975 before moving on to Parliament Hill for Radio-Canada radio. She has served as parliamentary bureau chief for Le Devoir and La Presse.
> Hébert is a graduate of Glendon College, York University. She is a Senior Fellow of Massey College at the University of Toronto and hold an honorary doctorate from Bishop’s University. She is a recipient of two Asia-Pacific media fellowship (Malaysia and Japan). She is the 2005 recipient of the APEX Public Service Award. In 2006, she received the Hy Solomon award for excellence in journalism and public policy as well as York University’s Pinnacle Achievement Bryden Alumni award. She is the author of a 2007 book titled French Kiss: Stephen Harper’s Blind Date with Quebec.
> Hébert is an Officer of the Order of Canada.

19. Truth About Canadian Media

We like to think that there are more open minded and trustworthy sources in right-leaning media. However, that it is not really the case. Too much of the media is controlled by agents who don’t have Canadians’ best interests at hearts.

Perhaps Ronald Reagan has the best idea: trust, but verify. Of course, that meant to dealing with the U.S.S.R. Or better yet, don’t trust until you have verified.

While there are more names that can go on this list, this should give a pretty good idea what is going on. Remember, Post Media owns the bulk of the media in Canada (at least right-leaning media), both major and minor publications. And many of the “independents” are not who they appear to be.

Are there good reporters and journalists in Canada? Certainly, but they seem to be few and far between.

CANADA, CORPORATE, CORRUPTION, GLOBALISM, IMMIGRATION (CANADA), MEDIA, WORLD

4 Replies to “Much “Conservative” Content Dominated By Koch/Atlas”

Bradly Lybbert

MAY 2, 2020 AT 11:13 PM

Whats up very cool site!! Guy .. Beautiful .. Wonderful .. I will bookmark your site and take the feeds also…I am happy to search out numerous useful information here in the post, we’d like work out extra techniques on this regard, thank you for sharing.

สมัครบาคาร่า

JUNE 21, 2020 AT 12:55 PM

Hi! I’m at work browsing your blog from my new iphone!
Just wanted to say I love reading your blog and look forward to all your posts!
Keep up the fantastic work!

David

JANUARY 24, 2021 AT 4:13 AM

Someone needs to pay the bills to keep the lights on but I do agree that this needs to be openly discussed. I do believe that as we age, we should get wiser which may explain some of the moving around. Globalism in off itself is not a bad thing but it does depends on what one’s idealogical endgame is. With shekels comes shackles so I agree, always follow the money.

betflik สมัคร

APRIL 10, 2021 AT 7:45 PM

I would like to thank you for the efforts you have put in writing this blog. I am hoping the same high-grade website post from you in the upcoming also. Actually your creative writing abilities has inspired me to get my own blog now. Really the blogging is spreading its wings quickly. Your write up is a treat example of it.